Palalli M. A. Narayana Iyengar Charities

Palalli M. A. Narayana Iyengar Charities is a registered Charitable Trust, established in 1996, in memory of Late Shri M. A. Narayana Iyengar - popularly known as Palalli Narayana Iyengar - by his grandchildren, with the objective of providing educational help and promoting culture.

The Trust gives scholarships, has instituted Merit Awards and publishes works that reflect our rich cultural and spiritual heritage.

A glimpse of our activities

Scholarships to the needy and deserving students and Merit Awards instituted in schools like the Malleswaram Ladies' Association Schools.

Publication of works reflecting our rich cultural and spiritual heritage:

English translations of Tirupallandu, Tiruppavai, Gadyatrayam, and Audio CD of Gadyatrayam.

Spreading awareness about our rich spiritual and cultural heritage through lectures by eminent scholars and cultural programmes. Participating, sponsoring and being part of summer camps for the inmates and students of Seva Sadan.

We invite you to support our efforts by:

Sponsoring the expenses of a student

Instituting Merit Awards for promoting excellence

You can institute an award in the name of some one near and dear to you, or whom you hold in high esteem.

Sponsoring Cultural Programmes or Lectures

Which highlights our culture and spiritual heritage

Distributing our publications as mementos

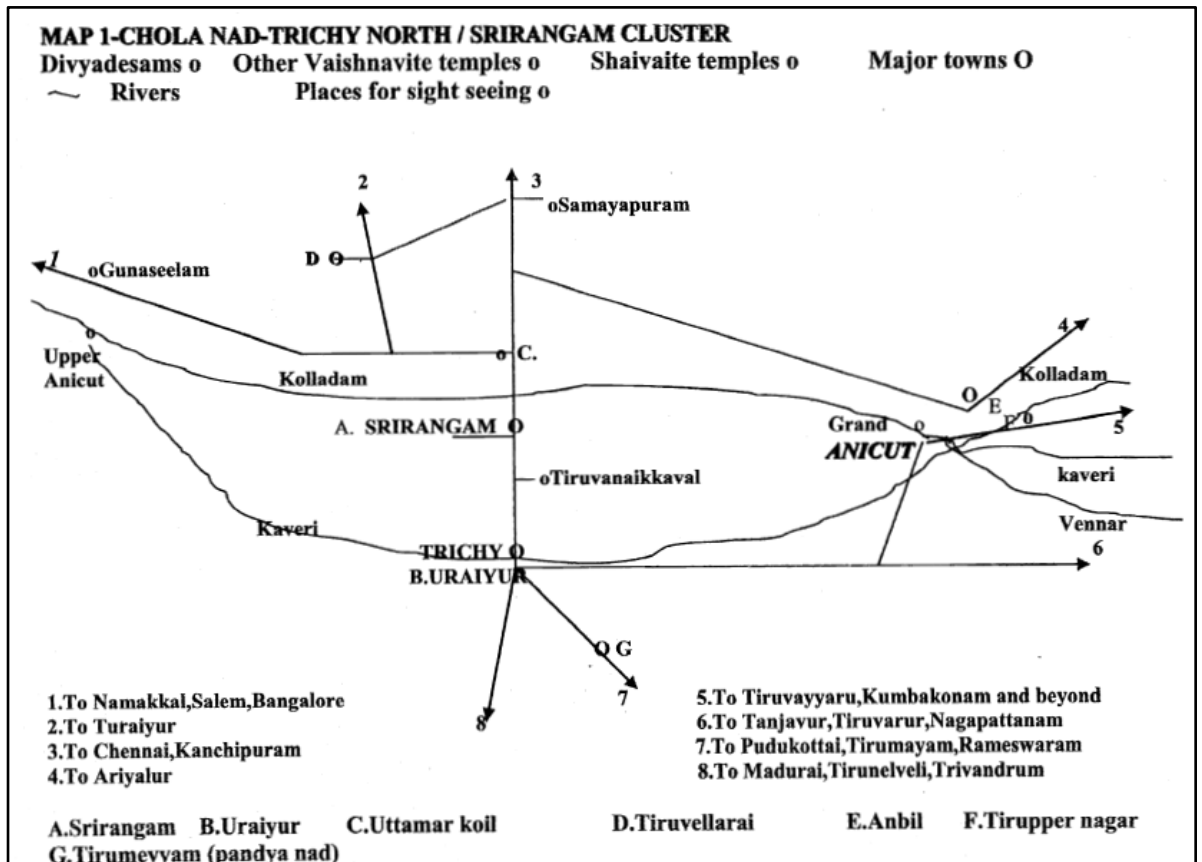

Give a distinct touch to your function by distributing our publications as a memento.

Ad hoc Donations

Just donate whatever you wish, to support these activities.

All the donations received by the Trust are eligible for income tax exemption under Section 80G(5) (vi) of Income Tax Act 1961.

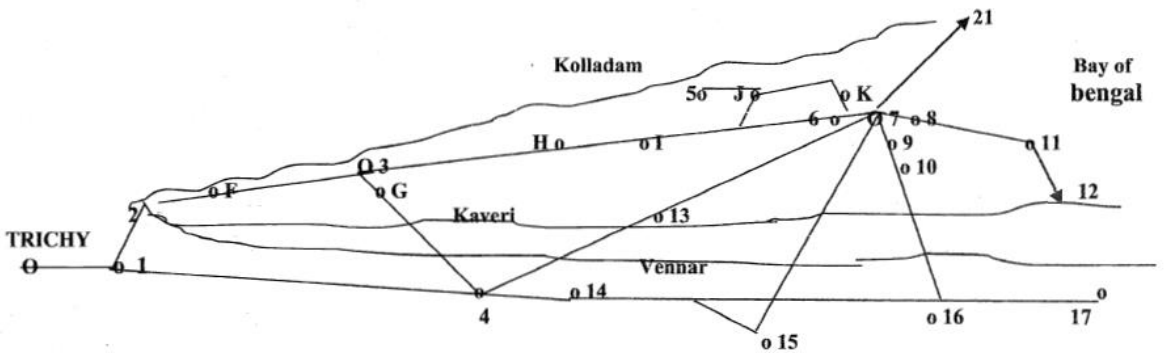

Your generous support will enable us to extend educational aid to a larger number of deserving and needy students, bring out more publications, and spread greater awareness about our rich cultural heritage.
