TESTIMONIALS

OF

R. A. Narsimhachar M. A.

Central College, Bangalore.

March 19 : 1882.

R. Narasimhachar Matriculated, from the Presidency College Madras in 1877, and then joined the Junior First in Arts Class at the Central College, Bangalore.

I have much pleasure in testifying to his steady application to work for the past four years.

In 1879 he passed the First in Arts Examination in the 1st Class, and was then given the Dobbs' Scholarship, and the 1st prize in the class. He has also gained prizes in the B. A. classes.

PRINCIPAL.

Central College, Bangalore.

19th March 1882. .

I have great pleasure in certifying that Mr. R. Narasimhachar B. A. studied in the Central College for a period of four years from the date of Matriculation. He has been a very successful student, and has won scholarships and prizes in every class. He was distinguished for his steady application, and regularity of attendance. His conduct throughout his college career has been unexceptionable. * * *

Should he find employment under Government, I have no doubt the State will find him a useful, honest and hard working servant.

• VICE-PRINCIPAL.

Chikmagalur High School.

10th April 1886. •

Mr. R. NARASIMHACHAR has been first asst. Master in the Chikmagalore High School for a little over three and a half years, during that time he has had entire charge of the Middle School Class and I have much pleasure in adding that he has discharged his duties to my entire satisfaction and I should be sorry to stand in the way of his advancement.

He is hard working and takes the deepest interest in his work. His attendance has always been very regular and thus he set a bright example to his boys.

(Signed) SAMUEL CRESS B. A.,
HEAD MASTER.

Maharaja's College Mysore.

21st March 1887

I have great pleasure in certifying that Mr. R. NARASIMHACHAR served as an asst. Master of this College from the 19th April 1886 to the 17th March 1887. During that time he was principally in charge of the Upper IV class. I have found him to be a painstaking, amiable and accurate teacher. His class progressed rapidly under his tuition. I trust he will prove a very useful Master in the Maharani's Girls' School to which he has been transferred.

I believe he has a scholarly knowledge of Kanarese and Sanskrit Literature.

Mysore.

12th June 1889.

I have very great pleasure to bear testimony to the valuable service rendered by Mr. R. A. NARASIMHACHAR B. A. in the Maharani's Girls' High School, Mysore. He has been in the School for upwards of two years. He is an able and painstaking teacher, and has cheerfully devoted all his time to the work of the School. The High Standard of Knowledge he possesses in Kanarese and Sanskrit renders his services peculiarly valuable to any School or College.

College and School, Shimoga.

26th September 1892.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the esteem Mr. R. NARASIMHACHAR, B. A. our Principal Assistant, is held in by both Masters and Students. For the year he has been connected with us, he has manifested the greatest thoroughness, earnestness and cheerfulness in the discharge of his duty.

In the Department of Translation he has proved invaluable from his intimate acquaintance with Sanskrit and Kanarese, and his good knowledge of English. He has ever been genial and gentle, patient and painstaking, punctual in attendance and earnest in effort. Unobtrusive but respectful, he has earned the respect of all with whom he has come in contact. I wish him every success in his further career.

(Signed) A. G. KING B. A.,

HEADMASTER.

Triplicane Veda Vedanta Vardhini
Institution.

Madras 27th July 1882.

This is to certify that Mr. R. A. Narasimhacharyar, a Graduate of the University of Madras, studied in the senior department of the above Institution for a period of five years or thereabouts during which time he gave every satisfaction to his teachers and brought great credit to the Institution. He possesses excellent knowledge of Sanskrit and it is not too much to say that he will be a valuable acquisition to any College wherein he may be employed as a teacher.

(Signed) M. O. Parthasarathyayengar B. A., M. L. formerly Secretary to, and now a member of, the Triplicane Veda Vedanta Vardhini Institution.
